

Useful weblinks for reading

www.oxfordowl.co.uk

All of these links are available from Oxford Owl or, alternatively, type them into google:

- Books For Keeps
- Booktrust – reading recommendations for different ages
- Chatterbooks
- First News – online news site aimed at children
- Guardian Children's Books
- Just Imagine
- The National Literacy Trust
- LoveReading4Kids – lots of book recommendations
- Reading Zone
- Summer Reading Challenge – free to sign up; there is a book sorter which children can use to find books which match their preferences
- World Book Day
- A compendium of UK parent bloggers
- <http://www.booktime.org.uk/schools/reading-with-your-child> - booklet with some nice tips
- <http://www.topmarks.co.uk/parents/ten-tips-on-hearing-your-child-read> - 10 top tips for reading with your child

We also have lots of audio books in the library you can borrow. Please visit on Wednesdays straight after school or visit your local library (free to join).

www.amazon.co.uk – you can find second hand books in good condition for reasonable prices.
Kindle books – The daily deal (usually 99p) is sometimes a children's book ibooks – several books are available for free download

Charity shops and village fetes - great places to pick up lots of books for a bargain

The book people (www.thebookpeople.co.uk) has some amazing bargains. If you spend over £25 you get free delivery or perhaps you could club together with someone else.